Higher rates for call money during the last few days have checked the buying of commercial paper and acceptances to some extent, with a consequent hardening of quotations.

Commercial paper rates still rang from 7½ to 7¾ per cent, the latter onsidered the market rate by brokers and bankers. The interior banks are best buyers.

All Salaries 10 P. C., Hours Shortened

Although a slight improvement in the clock situation has been reported by a few manufacturers, the larger number have declared that no change in the present quiet condition of the trade has been perceptible. Sales of a minority during March showed small gains over February. Sales generally have held about even.

The working week of factory employees of a clock company, which only last month had been shortened. has again been subjected to a reduction. Nearly all the clock department employees for the company are now working only five days a week, seven hours a day, and the watch department employees four days. A reduction of all salaried employees has also been made, and it is understood to that the rate for piece work in the factory will be cut if per cent in compensation of all salaried employees has also been made, and it is understood that the rate for piece work in the factory will be cut if per cent. The price of cleap clocks and watches made by the company has been reduced, but, according to an executive, this small cut has done little to stimulate buying.

Other manufacturers have not recentled any further. A few companies reported on hand many orders which have not been filled. Production in their factories is said to be more imminent than for it is a production in their factories is said to be normal manufacturers arging that prices of chirts, ties and other articles to stimulate buying.
